Who Will Reign As Queen Over The '52 Carnival?

MISS MARIE BARRETT of Metuen, Mass., will be escorted to the festivities of the weekend by Roland Bourque of St. William's Hall. Marie is 5'8" tall and is 21 years old. She is a blue-eyed working girl and likes to dance and bowl.

St. John's Hall and Bill Connorly's entry into the "Queen Contest" is MISS HELEN BOIVIN. Helen is 18 years old and lives in Lynn, Mass. She graduated from Lynn Classical High School and is now employed as a secretary in the General Electric Co., in West Lynn. She is a five-foot-three-inch brunette and has brown eyes.

One of the Off-Campus entries is MISS JOAN MUTTER of New Britain, Conn. Joan is a senior at Oxford in Hartford, Conn., and likes all sports and music. She is 5'5" tall and has brown eyes and brown hair. Joan will be escorted by Walter Liss.

SUZANNE PRENTICE has been chosen by Ryan I and II to represent them. She is a sophomore at the University of Vermont. Dick Gleason of Ryan I will be her escort. Sue has hazel eyes, brown hair, and is 5'6" tall. She is 19 years old.

No Word Yet From Godfrey Or Blythe

The Winter Carnival Committee is still awaiting a definite word from either Arthur Godfrey or Ann Blythe as to whether or not they will be able to accept the honor that the Committee has bestowed upon them. That they have been chosen honorary King and Queen respectively of the Fourth Annual Outing Club-sponsored pageant.

It all started over a cup of coffee some time ago, when someone suggested inviting two "Big" names to attend the Carnival. By a unanimous vote, Godfrey and Miss Blythe got the nod and phone calls to California, telegrams and letters followed. The Outing Club has been thinking of this move ever since school opened last September, but the "Big Push" began only about 2 weeks ago.

OPERATOR MEETS OPERATORS

At that time about five members of the Outing Club along with Prof. Connie Hannigan, moderator of the club, decided to call Miss Blythe. She was chosen because of her fine work on behalf of Fr. Keller and "The Christopher Movement."

Mr. Godfrey was chosen because of his "between classes wit, and because of his nationwide popularity." So this nucleus of "hustlers" proceeded to go back to Ryan I from the Snack Bar to place the call to Miss Blythe. After much arguing and coin-flipping, Dick Gleason got the "nod" to talk to her.

The operator in Burlington at first thought the call was all a joke, but she soon found out differently. The phone buzzed, and Dick said... "We're in Chicago" ... "We're in Los Angeles" ... "Now we're in Hollywood." The suspense continued to

Final Voting To Take Place Jan. 28

Eight beautiful girls--eight... Count them... Here are the semi-finalists who will vie for the top honor of being the Carnival Queen for this 1952 St. Michael's Outing Club master event of the year.

COMPETITION KEEN

The competition has been keen during the past week in the various dorms where the S.M.O.C. committees were conducting the votings by elimination. Over 40 pictures were entered for consideration by the students. Of these, the individual hall or floor (as the case may be) voted on their choice to represent them in the semi-finals.

The student body will vote again for the final "Sno-Ball" Queen. Her seven running mates will make up the Queen's Court of Honor.

FULL REIGN

The Queen of the Ball herself will reign over the whole weekend with her escort, who will be the king of the affair. Unlike most monarchies, this Queen will have all top honors and the last word during the weekend. She shall wave the golden wand over her subjects and see to it that everyone within sight of her royal throne enjoys themselves to the limit.

The final voting for the Queen will take place in the college dining hall vestibule next Monday, January 28. Voting will be from 12 noon until 5:00 P.M. The results of the voting will be made known at the "Sno-Ball" Friday night, February 1st.

SO, HERE'S TO THE QUEEN
WHOMEVER SHE MAY BE
SHE WILL REIGN SUPREME FOR THE S.M.O.C.

Two S.M. Students Talk In Rutland

Two of our well known Latin American students here at the College spoke last Tuesday night at a meeting of the peoples forum, in Meldon School Auditorium, Rutland... They were Gustavo Guillen from Amapala, Honduras and Jose Jarmillo of Bogota, Columbia. Each gave a twenty minute talk on "Our Good Neighbor Policy in Latin America." After their talk, some of the 150 people, including lawyers, doctors, and high officials of Rutland, asked the students questions of all different types.

FRENCH CLUB TO TOUR MONTREAL

The College French Club is making plans for a trip to Montreal. Members of the club plan to visit many points of interest in and around that city. The trip is tentatively scheduled for the first week in May, immediately after the forthcoming French play.

MISS JEAN BERNIER is a senior at Millbury, Mass., High School, at which school she is on the Field Hockey team. Jean won the hearts of the students of O.H. II, and will be escorted to the Carnival by Dave Matson. Jean is 5'5" tall, and has brown eyes. She plans to enter St. Vincent's Hospital's School of Nursing, in Worcester, Mass., next Sept.

CAROL GOSSELIN from Nahant, Mass., is the only member of last year's "Queen Court" to be entered in this year's contest. Carol will be escorted by Dick Solimine. She is 19 years old with blond hair and blue eyes. She is a 5'2" business student.

JOANNE OUIMET is 18 years old and is a Secretary at Baldwin Duckworth in Springfield, Mass. Her hometown is Springfield and she will be escorted by Gene Messer of Ryan 3. Joanne is a graduate of West Springfield High School. She has brown eyes and her hair is brunette. She represents Ryan III and IV.

MISS FRANCES SWEDBURG is a 19 year old sophomore at the University of Conn. Frances is 5'7" tall with red hair and hazel eyes. Her hometown is Woonsocket, R.I., and she will be escorted to the Carnival by Don Rushford, Off-Campus, Burlington.

S.M.O.C Carnival Set For February 1,2,3

The St. Michael's College Outing Club will sponsor its fourth annual Winter Carnival this year on the days of February 1, 2, 3.

If "Old Man Winter" will only lend a helping hand, this promises to be the best Carnival yet, as the Outing Club Committee has spent months of planning in preparation for the annual pageant.

Slaven To Direct Snow Sculpture

If you haven't got your date for the Winter Weekend yet, get one! The Outing Club has a big weekend planned for all those attending. The Queen Contest is now in "high gear" and the Snow Sculpture Contest should start going immediately.

Each hall must pick its own sculpture representative and hand his name in to Don Slaven, Ryan Hall, 123 no later than January 21. This representative is to take charge of the sculpture of that hall. He must see that a scale model is first made, and should see that everything needed is laid out before work is started on the sculpture itself.

Frame work may be used on the final product, but if, per chance, there isn't any snow, or at least enough to warrant a sculpture, a sign or model contest will be held in its place.

The sculptures (or signs) will be judged Saturday morning, February 2, and the winners will be announced at the Jazz Concert that afternoon.

For any further information on the Sculpture Contest, see Don Slaven, Ryan 123, chairman of the Snow Sculpture Committee.

For the past two years, Fr. Paulin's boys have won.

The weekend will officially open on Friday afternoon at a reception in the College Library for the girls. This will be followed at 9 p.m. by the highlights of the weekend, the Semi-formal "Sno-Ball" in Austin Hall.

GOOD MUSIC

After all snow sculptures have been judged and after the ski events have been run off, the Arabian Knights, under the direction of Bill Cofrances, will once again stage their ever-popular Jazz Concert, Saturday afternoon, in Austin Hall.

Saturday evening, an informal dance, once again in Austin Hall, will follow a basketball game between the Purple Knights and American International College of Springfield.

If, as we say, "Old Man Winter" assents to leave us some good wintry weather, there will also be night skiing available for all Michaelmen and their dates and also there will be sleighs available on campus for all those who might wish to enjoy the wonderland of Mid-Winter in Vermont while riding along in a one-horse open sleigh.

The weekend will formally come to a close at the skiers' Mass in the College Chapel on Sunday morning, after which busses will be leaving the campus for Mt. Mansfield for

... AND A VOICE WAS HEARD.....

At the Springfield Alumni Dance during the recent holiday a small group of spirited Michaelmen gathered together to sing praise to their school before the mixed audience.

The room was overflowing with grads and undergrads as the loyal sons of St. Michael's sounded the first note of the Alma Mater. Perhaps those who started the song (a vast minority) had visions of moistened eyes and erect bodies as all present stood up in honor of their common heritage and background, St. Michael's College. But the day of reckoning has finally arrived.

"St. Michael's, you have been to us, a friend so staunch and true" ... The second line of the Alma Mater faded away into an embarrassing silence. One man was left standing. Everyone else, both grads and undergrads, sitting, wondering just what all the noise was about. The song had ended on a note of apathy and despair.

At that moment, those who recognized the situation for what it was probably wanted suddenly to become small enough to slide under the door. This scene could have been reproduced with the same disastrous results wherever Michaelmen gathered.

At the '51 commencement, members of the graduating class made a sorry display when they TRIED to sing the Alma Mater before the large and imposing audience.

Why?

Why is it that over 750 undergraduates and as many alumni do not know the words and music to their Alma Mater? Why is it that wherever Michaelmen gather and try to sing the song, they end up in a mess.

How many members of the graduating class of '52 know the words and music of their Alma Mater well enough to get up and sing it? Better still, how many members of this or any class KNOW their Alma Mater? The final count probably would not exceed 10.

Many theories have been advocated. The music is not "catchy enough." (This is the second setting of the words.) ... The words do not reflect the real feeling of each graduate. Both students and faculty seem to agree that we need a song with more life and matching words for it.

Of the 750 students on campus at the present time, there are at least 50 qualified musicians with enough talent to make up some kind of a tune with student appeal. Imagination among the students, which is as plentiful as cold weather, could be used to write words for the music. There would seem to be no reason why a new Alma Mater could not be written.

On the other hand, if we cannot create a new Alma Mater, it would seem vital to acquaint everyone on campus with the present one. The Glee Club has made it sound effective.

From the viewpoint of the Class of '52, what kind of graduation ceremony will we have with no one acquainted with the Alma Mater ... let's not have a repetition of the blunder caused by a lack of knowledge on the part of the graduating class at last year's commencement exercises.

DEBATING TEAM WILL TRAVEL THROUGH N.E.

The St. Michael's Varsity Debating Team will journey February 28 to match their forensic skills with Harvard, B.U., B.C., M.I.T., Brown, Providence College, The Elms, Mount Holyoke, Amherst, and Smith College.

During this trip the debaters will discuss the National Intercollegiate Debating topic, "Resolved that permanent price and wage control should be established by the federal government."

An affirmative and a negative team will go on this trip with Professor Edward Murphy, the Debating Club Moderator. Last year the St. Michael's aggregation met with victories at Amherst, Harvard, B.C., and M.I.T.

O'Gorman To Edit Lance

Edward C. O'Gorman succeeds Gerald L. Heffernan as Editor-in-Chief of the Lance, the S.M.C. literary magazine. O'Gorman's appointment is due to retiring Editor Heffernan graduates in February.

Material for the spring issue of the Lance is being gathered at present. O'Gorman hopes to have the spring edition appear shortly before the Easter recess.

The Poetry Editor of the Lance will also have a successor. Charles Randall, who served in that capacity, is leaving S.M.C. after mid-year exams to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Selective Service Gives New Ruling

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey announced recently that the rule has been changed, which allowed a 30-day period after the completion of the academic year to enlist in the service of his choice. He pointed out that from now on, students in good standing will be deferred under a 1-S classification, instead of having their induction postponed.

If you are eligible for active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and wish further information on this matter, you should consult Mr. Thomas Garrett, Registrar.

Fordham Prof. To Address D.E.S. Students Feb. 11

Dr. Francis X. Connolly, Professor of English at Fordham University, widely known critic, novelist and poet, will be this year's Delta Epsilon Sigma Speaker at St. Michael's College.

Professor Connolly will speak on "The Function of Literature in a Liberal Arts Education" at 8:15 P.M. February 11, in Austin Hall.

His talk will be free and open to the public and will follow a dinner and ceremony at which 24 seniors and two alumni will be inducted into the Alpha Nu Chapter of the National Catholic Honor Society here on campus.

Alumni Originate Drive To Raise $100,000

St. Michael's College Alumni aim to raise $100,000 this year toward an Alumni memorial chapel on campus.

J. Patrick Harty, of Cambridge, Mass., alumni association president, today announced a "buy a brick" campaign as the alumni gift to the college this year.

The project was originally proposed by William Geary, '33, a Pittsfield, Mass. radio man now in El Paso, Texas. The board of directors at its annual meeting voted unanimously in favor of the project and invited Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., president of the college, to be the honorary chairman.

Harty, a Boston newspaperman, will be general chairman and Rev. Gerard Duford, S.S.E., the alumni secretary, will be executive secretary.

St. Michael's College Chapel holds less than half the student body of about 800. Since St. Michael's expanded after World War II, Masses which required the attendance of the entire student body have been held in Austin Hall. In recent years, baccalaureate services have been held at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral in Burlington.

The present chapel is in College Hall, a building also used for classrooms and offices. The building of a new chapel will not only provide a place for all students to worship under one roof, Harty pointed out. It will also free this space for classroom space required by the growth of St. Michael's.

The bricks come in books of ten, with each brick selling for one dollar.

The chapel project will be pushed by alumni chapters in Burlington and Rutland, Vermont; Boston, Worcester, Springfield and Pittsfield, Massachusetts; Albany and New York City in New York and Montreal in Canada.

Mission Crusade Gift Received With Enthusiasm

"Our best Christmas present" was the way members of the boys' club which the Society of St. Edmund started at Selma, Ala., reacted to the gift of a station wagon from students at St. Michael's College.

Rev. Maurice Boucher, S.S.E., Mission Crusade moderator at St. Michael's, and Rev. Vincent B. Maloney, S.S.E., are back after driving South just before Christmas with the station wagon. The car was bought by the students from the proceeds of selling Christmas cards, mite boxes, collections and shows, plus a gift from Julian Reiss, Lake Placid, N.Y. motor dealer and Catholic philanthropist.

Fr. Boucher is preparing a report for the Mission Crusade which collected for the gift.

ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME

"We were welcomed," Fr. Boucher said, "with typical teen age enthusiasm. The welcome was deafening. When the boys saw the wagon which Rev. Nelson Ziter, S.S.E. had told them was coming, they sounded like the happiest boys imaginable."

The station wagon which will help transport teams from the club at St. Elizabeth's was proudly driven January 1 by two negro boys in the Emancipation Day Parade in Selma.

RETURNED WITH THANKS

"Everyone wanted to be sure I brought back their thanks, not only for the station wagon, but also for fine work the Society of St. Edmund is doing in the South with its churches, missions, schools, and hospital," Fr. Boucher said.

His report to the Mission Crusade will include pictures which he took at the Edmundite missions in Elizabeth City, N.C. where Rev. William LePage, S.S.E., formerly of Montgomery, is pastor and at Gadsden, Ala., where Rev. Casimir Cichanowicz, formerly of Springfield, Vt., is pastor, before stopping at the motherhouse in Selma, headed by Very Rev. Norman Lambert, S.S.E.

Contest Prize Is Week's Vacation

Want a week of skiing free of charge at Vermont's famous snow resorts? The ten college student winners of the annual Why Ski Contest will receive all meals, lodging and travel within the state, entertainment, skiing and instruction. Also square dancing, song fests, and parties will be arranged. Send your 100 words or less, in prose or verse, on the subject, "Why Ski?" to Why Ski Editor, State House, Montpelier, Vermont. All entries must be postmarked before midnight January 24.

Saturday evening there will be a banquet in the College Dining Hall. A synthesis of the panels will be given at this time. The banquet will be followed by a social evening.

The convocation closes with Mass on Sunday, March 15.

Hilltopics:

By BILL KEOGH

Let's just ramble here and there: During Christmas vacation, Pvt. Pat O'Doherty was around. He's a starter with Keith Galli, ex-U.V.M. cager, on a regimental team at Fort Dix... Forrest Rouelle, a former Golden Glover, now studying at the Grand Seminary in Montreal, was around also... Ralph LaPointe, All-Opponent referee last year, will coach U.V.M. baseball next spring... Vermont and S.M. to oppose each other in mid-season on the gridiron next October 11... The only Yankee Conference football game the Catamounts play next year is against Maine... The only "Vermont Conference" game S.M. plays is against U.V.M... Two Jesuit institutions have dropped football as of next season. They are U. of San Francisco and Detroit... U.S.F. and St. Michael's are the only unbeaten and untied Catholic teams in the nation... More on football: Kiwanis clubs in Montreal and Boston are sponsoring football games so that fans of one country can see how the sport is played in the other. Two teams from the States will play in Montreal in the Spring and two Canadian elevens square off in the Boston area next Fall... The Seniors on last year's squad will play next season's team during spring workouts... Ray Doherty, former editor of the MICHAELMAN and sports publicist, has landed a Public Information job with the Marines at Camp Lejeune. He's covering basketball... The S.M. (5-3) hoop record is disappointing compared to last year's... The lack of a big man is the main reason... This was quite evident in the losses to Colby, Brandeis, and St. Francis (Pa.)... The Red Flashes from Loretto were scouted by Eddie Markey in their loss to St. Peter's. Although the report was excellent the Red Flashes were unbeatable... The Frankies beat St. Francis of Brooklyn the other night 72-65... They only lost to top ranking Dequesne 54-46... St. Francis (Pa.) trounced St. Anselm's 73-61... Following the victory (to say the least) over McGill, the Purple Knights enjoyed a swim in the pool adjoining the basketball court. They have quite an athletic plant there... S.M.'S 94 points counters St. Francis' 94 earlier in the same week. The Purple's 94 was the highest ever recorded. Rhode Island State registered an opponent high of 106 against St. Michael's 62 in 1946... "Doc" Jacobs is in favor of a 7 p.m. contest with American International College during the Winter Carnival. Attempts are being made to put it through... Burlington's CYO basketball league is in dire need of officials for Saturday morning contests. "Biggy" Casperson is the only one who has put in an appearance. Looking through the grandstand, one can see quite a number of students who know basketball. Get down to the Cathedral High gym Saturday a.m. and use your talents there!... Norwich incident: It takes more moxie to keep quiet about a thing and turn the other cheek rather than do more damage... R.I.P.... St. Michael's scoring: Kateley 99, Farley 97, Barry 75, Aumand 69, Stapleton 52, Polworth 51, Duffy 43, Murphy 34, Carr 33, Witte 18, Roy 9, Brouillette 6, Lovett 5, Donovan 4, and Crotty 2... ## Midd, St. A's Next

By FRAN HOBEN

After a disappointing holiday series of games, of which they won but one of four, the Purple Knights will attempt to get back to accustomed winning ways Tuesday evening when they invade Middlebury. Later, on the 27th of the month, St. Anselm's comes to Memorial Auditorium in the locals next home game.

GLOVES EVENT
LISTS FIVE MICHAELMEN

Five St. Michael's students were scheduled to take part in the fifth annual Golden Gloves tournament which started Thursday evening at Memorial Auditorium in Burlington. They will be among more than fifty aspirants for the right to represent the state of Vermont in the Boston finals later.

Two of the local entrants have had experience in previous Gloves competition. Jerry Finn is a veteran of the 1949 and 1950 tournaments, while John "Red" McGough competed in '50. Others include, Jim McDonald, Paul Dumais and John Carroll. The group will also be vying for the team trophy, sponsored by the Burlington Daily News.

The boys began working out independently two weeks ago, but were combined into a representative unit by Pete Plourde, who will serve as manager. Plourde has been assisted by John "Sugar" Whelan and Eddie Carrier.

The meeting with Middlebury will be the second of the season. In December the Knights had little trouble in ringing up an impressive 87-48 win. However, playing on their home court this time, Coach Tony Lupien's club should be somewhat tougher.

ST. A'S ALWAYS TOUGH

The game with St. Anselm's should be the usual spirited affair. The Hawks from Manchester, N.H., do not boast as good a record as last year's team but have considerably more height. Seven of the thirteen squad members measure 6-3 or more. The tallest is 6-6 Jim Driscoll, a Sophomore center. Two others, the talented Charlie Duffly, who is the regular center, and forward "Zyggy" Leocha, go 6-5.

Strangely enough however, the most valuable member of St. A's is speedy Bobby Williams, who can do no better than 5-11. He is the key man in Coach Al Grenert's offense, with his excellent ball-handling and court generalship setting up a majority of scoring plays. Williams, was the main reason why the Knights could do no better than split last winter, winning at home 73-51, and losing in Manchester 57-44.

Knights Win
Two of Five
Hoop Tilts

By BILL WIGMORE

Christmas vacation brought the St. Michael's cagers on to the home courts of two newcomers to the schedule, Colby and Brandeis, who proceeded to down the Knights 78-74, and 67-62 respectively. Consolation came, however, with the 68-46 trouncing of Champlain in Memorial Auditorium.

ROAD JINX CONTINUES

In the Colby tilt the lead exchanged hands more than a few times and was fought hard all the way, as evidenced by the 34-32 half-time score, with the Knights ahead. Jim Farley and Paul Aumand shared scoring honors with 18 apiece. Aumand was playing against his former teammates of freshman year at Colby, where he recorded an individual scoring mark for the White Mules in the 48-49 season.

Keeping the "Boston-area" jinx going, Brandeis provided the Knights with their second defeat of the season, 67-62. The Purple and Gold have dropped four contests in a row in eastern Mass. in four years. Kateley led the Michaelmen with 13, while Stapleton and Duffy netted 10 each.

In the home contest, S.M.C. came from behind to conquer Champlain. Down 19-9 at the quarter, the Knights tied it up by halftime and sparked by Farley, took a 45-40 lead going into the final stanza. It was the third win of the year over a New York State opponent, who thus far have failed to cope with the Knights.

RUDE RECORD-BREAKER

Another squad unfamiliar to St. Michael's schedule, St. Francis of Loretto (Pa.), handed Barry Brannon's charges their first defeat at home in 25 games by a 94-61 count. Taller than the Knights and seemingly better in their ball handling, the visitors from Pa. gained an early lead and maintained it throughout. Led by Bob Kateley's 23 points the Knights kept the score fairly close in the first half but collapsed under a terrific barrage in the closing quarters. Then St. Francis, led by Farace and Dugan, started a red hot pace, accumulating 32 and 31 points per quarter.

"Operator, I would like to speak to Miss Ann Blythe in Hollywood, California... This is St. Michael's College calling," said Dick Gleason (at 'phone) as he placed the person to person call to the well-known actress last week.

Miss Blythe was voted honorary queen for the coming St. Michael's Outing Club Winter Carnival which will be held Feb. 1, 2, and 3.

At the time of the call, Miss Blythe could not be reached (although the Los Angeles police tried their best to get her privately listed phone number). After the call, met with little success, a telegram was sent to the honorary queen inviting her to the "Sno-Ball." No definite answer has been received as yet.

Glib Gleason is at the phone, Joe Crowley and Frank Davis, co-chairmen of the Winter Carnival sank him. Prof. Connie Hannigan, S.M.O.C. Moderator is at extreme right and Owen Murphy, (the great profile) Publicity Director, is in the foreground.

mount, and the operator continued with her disbelief. But after about 10 phone calls in and around the vicinity of Hollywood, in an attempt to locate the beautiful Movie Queen, the operator began to weaken in her doubts.

POLICE NO HELP

The call continued for about 15 minutes and then in a last vain attempt, Dick said, "Let's try the Los Angeles Police Dept. -- Maybe they'll know where we can locate her. After all, somebody must know where she lives." Several jeers, and various replies came from the fast-growing crowd around the telephone, but as it turned out, even the Chief of Police could not tell where Miss Blythe might be found. At least if he did know, he was keeping the information to himself... No Chief Barber he.

The phone finally clicked for the last time, but the hopes of the committee did not die with it, for telegrams and letters followed, to both Ann and Arthur. ... But as yet --- No definite word has been received. All we can do now is, wait and see, and hope that these gallant Knights have not tried in vain.

It's good to smoke a Lucky Strike;
It's pleasure without flaw—
'Cause Luckies always are so free

I'm quite an athlete in school,
And many I have raced.

Always smoke those Lucky Strikes—
Their better taste is grand;

So they'll always be on hand.
